

Two elderly gentlemen from a retirement center were sitting on a bench under a tree when one turns to the other and says: "Slim, I'm 83 years old now and I'm just full of aches and pains. I know you're about my age. How do you feel?" Slim says, "I feel just like a newborn baby." "Really!? Like a newborn baby!?" "Yep. No hair, no teeth, and I think I just wet my pants."

George went to visit his elderly cousin Darrel and while eating the breakfast of eggs and bacon prepared for him, he noticed a film-like substance on his plate. So he says, "Cus, are these plates clean?" Darrel replies, "Those plates are as clean as cold water can get them." That afternoon, while eating the hamburgers Darrel made for lunch, he noticed many little black specks around the edge of his plate so again he asked, "Are you sure these plates are clean?" Without looking up from his burger Darrel says, "I told you those dishes are as clean as cold water can get them." Later that day, they were on their way out to get dinner. As George was leaving the house, Darrel's dog who was lying on the floor started to growl and would not let him pass. "Darrel, your dog won't let me out." Without diverting his attention from the football game he was watching, Darrel shouted, "Coldwater, get out of the way!"

HOW TO CALL THE POLICE

Roger Gresse, an elderly man, from Zanesville, OH, was going up to bed, when his wife told him that he'd left the light on in the garden shed. Roger opened the back door to go turn off the light, but saw that there were people in the shed stealing things. He phoned the police, who asked, "Is someone in your house?" He said "No," but some people are breaking into my garden shed and stealing from me." Then the police dispatcher said, "All patrols are busy. You should lock your doors and an officer will be along when one is available." Roger said, "Okay." He hung up the phone and counted to 30. Then he phoned the police again. "Hello, I just called you a few seconds ago because there were people stealing things from my shed. Well, you don't have to worry about them now because I just shot them," and he hung up. Within five minutes, six police cars, a SWAT team, a helicopter, two fire trucks, a paramedic, and an ambulance showed up at the Gresse residence, and caught the burglars red-handed. One of the policemen said to Roger, "I thought you said that you'd shot them!" Roger said, "I thought you said there was nobody available!"

April is Month of the Military Child!

April is the month of the Military Child. This special celebration is a legacy of former Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger and was established to underscore the important role children play in the Armed Forces community.

Today there are more than 1.2 million military children, and since 2001 approximately 2 million children have experienced deployment of a parent. Care of military children sustains our fighting force, and strengthens the health, security, and safety of our nation's families and communities.

No matter where you live, chances are that somewhere nearby a military family could use your support - not just during April - but throughout the year. AARP's Create The Good provides powerful opportunities to raise awareness and build support to help military families and their children meet the unique challenges they face!
