He studies the feng shui of his new home and then writes to Santa Claus: "Dear Santa, for Christmas I want you to bring me a yellow door." His trusty assistant Watson asks: "Why do you want a yellow door, Holmes?" The great detective replies: "Lemon entry, my dear Watson... Lemon entry!"

Please accept with no obligation, implied or implicit my best wishes for an environmentally conscious, socially responsible, low stress, non-addictive, gender neutral, celebration of the winter solstice holiday(tm), practiced within the most enjoyable traditions of the religious persuasion of your choice, or secular practices of your choice, with respect for the religious/secular persuasions and/or traditions of others, or their choice not to practice religious or secular traditions at all . . . and a fiscally successful, personally fulfilling, and medically uncomplicated recognition of the onset of the generally accepted calendar year 2015, but not without due respect for the calendars of choice of other cultures whose contributions to society have helped make America great, (not to imply that America is necessarily greater than any other country or is the only "AMERICA" in the western hemisphere), and without regard to the race, creed, color, age, physical ability, religious faith, choice of computer platform, or sexual orientation of the wishee.

By accepting this greeting, you are accepting these terms: This greeting is subject to clarification or withdrawal. It is freely transferable with no alteration to the original greeting. Mike walks into a bar with a newt on his shoulder. The barmaid looks at the creature and asks the man what he calls it. "Tiny," answers Mike. "Why's that?" inquires the barmaid. "Because he's my newt" concludes Mike. (1000 Mississippi, 2000 Mississippi, 3000 Mississippi ...)

The Hotel Is Full — A Jewish lady named Mrs. Rosenberg many years ago was stranded late one night at a fashionable resort - one that did not admit Jews. The desk clerk looked down at his book and said, "Sorry, no room. The hotel is full." The Jewish lady said, "But your sign says that you have vacancies." The desk clerk stammered and then said curtly, "You know that we do not admit Jews. Now if you will try the other side of town ..." Mrs. Rosenberg stiffened noticeably and said, "I'll have you know I converted to your religion." The desk clerk said, "Oh, yeah, let me give you a little test. How was Jesus born?" Mrs. Rosenberg replied, "He was born to a virgin named Mary in a little town called Bethlehem." "Very good," replied the hotel clerk. "Tell me more." Mrs. Rosenberg replied, "He was born in a manger." "That's right," said the hotel clerk. "And why was he born in a manger?" Mrs. Rosenberg said loudly, "Because a jerk like you in the hotel wouldn't give a Jewish lady a room for the night!"

Three Wise Women

You do know what would have happened if it had been three wise WOMEN instead of men, don't you? They would have asked for directions, arrived on time, helped deliver the baby, cleaned the stable, made a casserole, and brought disposable diapers as gifts!

Sometimes it's okay if the only thing you did today was breathe. However ...

Taking Granny For A Spin

An old nun, who was living in a convent next to a construction site, noticed the coarse language of the workers and decided to spend some time with them to correct their ways. And so, she decided she would take her lunch and sit with the workers. She put her sandwich in a brown bag and walked over to the spot where the men were eating. Sporting a big smile, she walked up to the group and asked: "And, do you men know Jesus Christ?" They shook their heads and looked at each other, very confused. One of the workers looked up into the steelworks and yelled out, "Anybody up there know Jesus Christ?" One of the steelworkers yelled down, "Why?" The worker yelled back, "Cause his mom's here with his lunch." Thanks Miss Ivis! ggd ☺

One beautiful December evening Huan Cho and his girlfriend Jung Lee were sitting by the side of the ocean. There was a romantic full moon, and Huan Cho said, "Hey baby, let's play Weeweechu." "Oh no, not now. Lets just look at the moon", said Jung Lee. "Oh, c'mon baby, let's you and I play Weeweechu. I love you and it's the perfect time," Huan Cho Begged. "But I had rather just hold your hand and watch the moon." "Please Jung Lee, just once... play Weeweechu with me." Jung Lee looked at Huan Cho and said, "OK, we'll play Weeweechu." Huan Cho grabbed his guitar and they both sang ... "Weeweechu a Merry Christmas, Weeweechu a Merry Christmas, Weeweechu a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year."

Just before Christmas, an honest politician, a generous lawyer and Santa Claus were riding in the elevator of a very posh hotel. Just before the doors opened they all noticed a $20 bill lying on the floor. Which one picked it up? Santa of course, because the other two don't exist! Har! Har! Har!

At a monastery high in the mountains, the (Chip) "monks" have a rigid vow of silence. Only at Christmas, and only by one monk, and only with one sentence, is the vow allowed to be broken. One Christmas, Brother Alvin is allowed to speak and he says, "I like the mashed potatoes we have with the Christmas turkey!" and he sits down. Silence ensues for 365 days. The next Christmas, Brother Simon gets his turn, and he says "I think the mashed potatoes are lumpy and I hate them!" Once again, silence for 366 days (it's leap year). The following Christmas, Brother Theodore rises and says, "I am fed up with this constant bickering!"

A week before Christmas Peter wrote a letter to Santa Claus and threw it in the mail box. The postmen got the letter and did not know where to send it so they opened it and read it: "Dear Santa Claus, this Christmas I'd love to get a teddy bear, a construction kit and water-based paints." The postmen were not happy, because there is no Santa Claus and Peter will receive no gift. They decided to gather some money, buy and send Peter gifts, he has asked in his letter. But it happened that they got enough money for the teddy bear and construction kit, but not enough for paints. They decided to send Peter an incomplete package with only two gifts. The day after Christmas Peter again wrote a letter to Santa and the postmen opened and read it again: "Dear Santa Claus, thank you for the wonderful teddy bear and construction kit! Unfortunately, I did not get the water-based paints. Probably the postmen stole it!"
