 "We Love To Clean!"

<<< LIGHTEN UP (Continued) A group of senior citizen ladies were touring an Army base, and part of the tour included a meal at the chow hall. After Sergeant Ramsey showed the ladies the barracks, drill field, exercise area, stockade, and the Colonel's and staff offices, it was off to the mess hall. After finishing the meal and the Sergeant telling the ladies of the 15,000 meals served each day, the 7,500 pounds of chicken, 150 pounds of butter, and 300 pounds of sugar used each day in meal preparation and serving, it was off to the kitchen area where the meals were prepared. The Sergeant wanted to impress the ladies, so he showed them all of the stainless steel pots that held 200 pounds of mashed potatoes, the freezers that were 50-feet long, and the dishwashers that had such hot water that all germs would be killed. Then the tour was off to the baking area where cookies were being made. The cookies were cut into shapes by an automated cookie-cutter, and then put on a conveyor belt going into the oven. As the belt took the morsels toward the oven, a big soldier who was shirtless would pick up each cookie, press it to his belly-button, and then put it back on the conveyor belt. One of the ladies asked why he was doing that procedure. To that, the Sergeant said that he was doing that to make designs on the cookies. Then the same lady asked, "Isn't that awfully unsanitary?" To that he answered, "Lady, you should have been here yesterday when we were making the donuts!"

WE CARE

For each new morning with its light, For rest and shelter of the night, For health and food, For love and friends, For everything Thy goodness sends. Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882) We Remember: "Miss Lottie" - Leokadia Sabina Kolodziej (86). Sunset: November 26, 2009. She survived internment in Germany during WWII. Born in New Britain, Connecticut, and raised and lived in Poland until 1961, Mrs. Kolodziej was a loving and out-going mother, grandmother who loved to sing, dance, tell stories, and joke around with those she knew. Her faith in God was very strong as she would testify to His love and grace in her life. She has left her family and friends with a great legacy of faith in God. "Blessed are those who mourn, For they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

Lighten Up: A Short Collection Of Amusing/Entertaining "Stuff!"

Two elderly gentlemen are playing cards on Saturday evening just as they have done for the past 50 years. Gus, the elder, had been having problems remembering what cards were what, and usually needed help from his wife. At the end of the card game Red said to Gus, "You did very good tonight. You didn't need any help at all. Why is that?" Gus replied, "Why, ever since my wife sent me to that memory school, I haven't had any problems at all." "Memory school? What memory school?" Gus thought for a moment, "Oh, what's that flower that's red with thorns? A really pretty flower . . ." "A rose?" asked Red. "Yeah, that's it!" Gus turned to his wife and mumbled, "Hey, Rose! What's the name of that memory school you sent me to?"

An elderly couple was watching television one evening. The wife said, "I am going to get a dish of ice cream now." Kindly, the husband offered to get the ice cream for his wife. "I'll write it down so you don't forget," she said. "I won't forget," the old gent said. "But, I want chocolate syrup and nuts on it. So, I'll write it down," she replied. "I will get you the ice cream. Don't you worry," replied the gentleman. A few minutes later, the old man returned with bacon and eggs. His wife said, "See, I should have written it down because you forgot the toast."

Q: How do you make four old ladies say "F*?"

A: Get a fifth old lady to yell "BINGO!"

Old Aunt Cora went to her doctor to see what could be done about her troublesome constipation. "It's terrible," she said to the doctor. "I haven't moved my bowels in more than a week." "I see. Have you done anything about it?" asked the doctor. "Oh, yes," Aunt Cora replied, "I sit in the bathroom for a good half of an hour in the morning and then again at night." "No," the doctor said, "I mean do you take anything?" "Of course I do." she answered, "I take a magazine."

A man was walking down the street when he noticed that his grandfather was sitting on the porch, in the rocking chair, with nothing on from the waist down. "Grandpa, what are you doing?" the man exclaimed. The old man looked off in the distance and did not answer his grandson. "Grandpa, what are you doing sitting out here with nothing on below the waist?" he asked again. The old man slyly looked at him and said, "Well, last week I sat out here with no shirt on, and I got a stiff neck. This was your Grandma's idea!"

An elderly gentleman was having some physical problems, so he went to see his doctor. The doctor told the old gent that he had to drink warm water one hour before breakfast. At the end of a week, the man returned for a follow-up visit to his doctor's office. The concerned doctor asked the old gent if he was feeling better. The man answered that he actually felt worse. Then the doctor asked, "Did you drink warm water an hour before breakfast each day?" "No," replied the man, "All I could do was about fifteen minutes."
